SUMMARY: Case update: On Fri 3/3 SDPD officers responded to a disturbance call in their jurisdiction. During the course of their investigation they contacted a subject, Robert Chavira, who had in his possession a single item taken from the Royal Maui robbery. Carlsbad Detectives responded to San Diego where they met with SDPD detectives, collected information, possible items of evidence (a bag containing some jewelry display stands) and the watch. Chavira was booked in San Diego on charges related to the disturbance call. Chavira has not been charged in connection to the Royal Maui robbery. The robbery investigation is continuing.
